IF I COULD LIVE THE LIFE OF A GALLANTRY AWARD WINNER

Appreciation and recognition are powerful motivators leading to an increase in performance, productivity, employee retention and overall satisfaction. Awards make people feel that their work is valued.

The Gallantry Awards are awards that have been instituted by the government of India to honour the rigors of bravery and sacrifice of the officers and personnel of the Armed Forces, other lawfully constituted forces and civilians.

These awards hold a great significance in my life as they provide an opportunity to live the life of a gallantry award winner, that, though it would only be a great achievement.

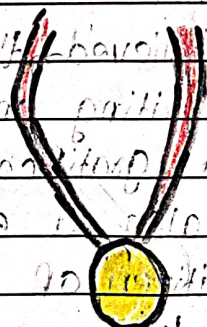

I have always believed that ambitions come from imaginations. Writing on the given topic, not only brings utmost gratification and pride about my country but also a sense of pleasure of being a worthy citizen of this dignified nation.

Having attained this character of a gallantry Award winner, I'll be prepared to give it my best and fullest. When one's resolute, there is no trying, there is just one choice, doing it.

Being in the Armed Forces does not need just physical training. It requires mental stubbornness to do something that is once decided. I'll be utterly strong willed, with determination in my mind, heart and soul, to do whatever that is necessary. I will take aim to coach my mind to make righteous decisions, even if they are arduous, and my heart must learn to abide by it.

There have been strenuous situations with the Armed Forces of India, very challenging, but this country put on a courageous face and as it's said, 'Fortune favours the brave'.

In conclusion, with being the personality I've been expressing, all these pages, I can promise my heart, and at this, promise everyone that I won't let my nation down. The Indian tricolour shall always fly.
